ENGINEERING CLUB BY CLASSROOM ANTONS (GRADES K-5)

Module 4: SECRET AGENTS

Let’s explore the ways humans, animals, and computers communicate with one another. We’ll study electronic devices, as well as how people communicated over long-distance before telephone. We’ll even build a flashlight to send messages using a cryptic code. We’ll learn about secret codes used over the years to keep messages private and how computer engineers still use secret codes today. Students will also engineer a secret safe to keep messages and belongings!

- Hinckley: Wednesdays, January 22, 29, February 5, 12 (Make-up day: February 19)
- Sharon: Tuesdays, January 21, 28, February 4, 11 (Make-up day: February 18)

Module 5: SPACE ODYSSEY

Let’s go to outer space as Aerospace Engineers. First, we will think about what we should pack and take a test mission to an asteroid. Next, we will learn about what astronauts eat and design a tiny garden for the outer space atmosphere. Then, we will design our spacesuit, learning about how different forces affect the human body. Finally, we will visit Mars and build a Rover to help scientists explore the Red Planet!

- Hinckley: Wednesdays, February 26, March 4, 11, 18 (Make-up day: April 1)
- Sharon: Tuesdays, February 25, March 3, 10, 17 (Make-up day: March 31)

Module 6: GET CHARGED!

Let’s learn about all kinds of electrical devices! Electrical Engineers put a lot of work into designing devices that use energy efficiently. We will learn what goes on inside these devices, including how circuits, switches and batteries work together to create light, movement or sound. Then, we will build games and create art and even visit Cromwell’s toy shop to design moving toys!

- Hinckley: Wednesdays, April 8, 15, 22, 29
- Sharon: Tuesdays, April 7, 14, 21, 28

All Classes: 3:30-5 p.m.
Registration: $85 Per Module

THE MONEY GAME (AGES 10+)
The Money Game®, provides an opportunity for participants to learn how to make, manage and multiply their money wisely so they can grow up financially free. Children are the game’s pieces, and expense bags are the props that are used for players to pay expenses from their $1,000 paychecks as they go around the board (aka, life). Students will learn to be financially secure and manage a household. They learn to make a car payment, pay for food, pay utilities and insurance, and learns about taxes. Then, they learn about financial requirements for life events – such as a car accident – all before they have passive dollars to spend or invest. During this 2-hour program, students go through to 12 rounds, each one representing a month.
Registration: $49
Saturday, March 7, 12-2 p.m.
